ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (during the vote). There are 2 minutes remaining on this vote.

□ 1916

So (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the resolution was agreed to.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. GUTIERREZ. Mr. Speaker, I was unavoidably absent from this Chamber today. Had I been present, I would have voted "yea" on rollcall votes 267, 268 and 269.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. MICA. Mr. Speaker, due to mechanical problems relating to US Airways flight #859, I was unavoidably detained and was unable to vote on rollcalls 267, 268, and 269. Had I been present, I would have voted "yea" on each of these measures.

HONORING THE SACRIFICE OF PETTY OFFICER SECOND CLASS TYLER TRAHAN

(Mr. NYE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. NYE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the life, the service and the sacrifice of Petty Officer Second Class Tyler Trahan, who was killed in action by a roadside bomb outside Fallujah, Iraq, on April 30.

Petty Officer Trahan was an explosive ordnance disposal technician, one of the most dangerous assignments, assigned to Unit 12 based in Norfolk, Virginia, and at the time of his death, he was deployed with the SEAL team based out of Virginia Beach.

Three years ago, like his father and grandfather before him, he signed up to bravely serve his country in uniform, telling his hometown newspaper, "I want to go and fight for the freedom I enjoyed growing up."

During his service, he earned numerous commendations and medals, including a Bronze Star with a Combat "V" Distinguishing Device and a Purple Heart.

On Sunday I had the opportunity to have dinner with the warfighters of the EOD Unit 10, which was based in Norfolk, like Trahan's unit. In an asymmetric conflict, where we are faced not with tanks and planes, but with roadside bombs with cell phone triggers, our EOD personnel, like Tyler Trahan, are critical for our success in the region.

Tyler Trahan was killed while performing his duties in al Anbar Province. While we may never know how many lives were saved by his actions, we must ensure that his life, his service and his sacrifice are never forgotten.

PRESIDENT OBAMA'S RHETORIC CONTRADICTS HIS ACTIONS

(Mr. WILSON of South Carolina asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. WILSON of South Carolina. Mr. Speaker, President Obama last week told a town hall audience that "we are mortgaging our children's future with more and more debt." He talked about how borrowing would lead to higher interest rates. I appreciate the President acknowledging these dangers. Unfortunately, it is his budget and his allies in Congress that will produce more debt in the next decade than all previous administrations combined. They are his policies that are borrowing too much, spending too much and taxing too much.

On the other hand, Republicans continue to offer a better way forward. Our policies would help small businesses and entrepreneurs have the capital and freedom to innovate and create jobs.

At some point, the President's actions need to match his words. American families cannot afford for President Obama to try to have it both ways.

In conclusion, God bless our troops, and we will never forget September the 11th in the global war on terrorism.

AMERICA'S NATIONAL SECURITY DEPENDS ON A STRONG MANUFACTURING BASE

(Mr. KUCINICH asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. KUCINICH. Across the United States, the word in the last few weeks is that America is going to lose many auto plants that provide thousands of jobs that have kept the economy of communities going for generations. And with that, thousands of dealerships now will close.

Think about it, America. America is going out of the car business. We are going out of the steel business. The things that enable us to defend our country we are giving up.

We have a resolution, House Resolution 444, which says that it is time that America took a stand and had a strategic industrial policy which declares
